OCTAVIA PROJECT

YAB NEWSLETTER
BACK TO SCHOOL EDITION

What do you call a nose that's 12 inches long?

WELCOME TO THE YOUTH ADVISORY BOARD NEWSLETTER! OUR NEWSLETTER IS CURATED BY OCTAVIA PROJECT ALUMNI. THE PURPOSE OF OUR NEWSLETTER IS TO BE ABLE TO CONNECT COLLEGE-AGED STUDENTS WITH OPPORTUNITIES ACROSS DIFFERENT INTERESTS. HAPPY READING :)

Job Opportunites:

RMCAD (Rocky Mountain College of Art+Design)
RMACD offers in person and online programs such as art education, animation, graphic design, illustration, photography and many more! (Learn more.)

Girls Who Code Pathways Program (Volunteer/Leadership Program)
A free virtual program where students build technical skills in areas such as AI, cybersecurity, web development, and game design while participating in community-building and career exploration activities. (Learn more.)

New-York Historical Teen Internship
Paid internship for NYC high school students interested in history, museums, and public engagement. Students work with museum staff while earning service and career experience. (Learn more.)

BDC Films Fellowships
Year long film making program for 18+ Bronx residents to build experience and industry connections. (Learn more.)

Community Events:

The 36th Annual Hong Kong Dragon Boat Festival
A multicultural celebration including exciting boat races and performances! (Learn More).

Manhattan Summer Streets
On select summer Saturdays our city's usual traffic noise and honking horns will be replaced with open streets teeming with walkers, bikers, runners, and performers (Learn More).

Bryant Park free Guitar Festival
Two evenings full of virtuosic classical guitar, Brazilian popular music, punk-jazz, and folk-based improvisations (Learn More).

Bankra Caribbean Culture Festival
Celebrating Caribbean culture and folk traditions– all ages welcome! Join us for a day of live performances, activities, basket weaving, music, storytelling, and more (Learn More)

Favorite Subject:

Eden: ELA
Yuni: Math
Red: Art
Nia: Art
Aneesa: English

Sign up to recieve emails regarding our monthly Newsletter!